1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act “PAIA” legislation creates the framework to the right to access information enshrined in section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act 108 of 1996. The purpose of this legislation is to promote a culture of transparency, accountability and good governance both in the private and public sectors. Therefore, the Act places specific compliance requirements on both state institutions and private sector.

PAIA gives a requester the right to lodge a request from the information officer (head) of a private body. A private body as defined in the Act includes juristic bodies. The Act further defines the head of a private body as “the chief executive officer or equivalent officer of the juristic person or any person duly authorized by that office....”

The legislation defines juristic entities as:

- a) A natural person who carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession, but only in such capacity
- b) A partnership which carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession or
- c) Any former or existing juristic person, but excludes a public body

Juristic persons will therefore include close corporations, non-profit organizations and trusts.

Please also note that holding companies and each of their entities or subsidiaries must submit separate manual for each company.

In terms of section 51 of PAIA, the head of a private body must:

- compile a section 51 manual which is a roadmap of the company
- submit the manual to the South African Human Rights Commission
- effect material changes if any each time these occur and resubmit to the SAHRC
- electronic submissions to the Commission are accepted, sent to dmalesa@sahrc.org.za thereafter followed by hard copy originals;
- manuals must be submitted to SAHRC head office at the address listed below
- update any material changes on the manual on a regular basis;
- make the manual available as prescribed by the Act at the company offices and on their website;
- must annex a request form to the manual and also make request form available on the website and at the company premises access points;
- there are penalties for non compliance – please see section 90 of PAIA, the Commission has not imposed fines for non compliance to date but reserves the right to do.
